DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-12 are pending in the case.

Sequence compliance

This application contains sequence disclosures that are encompassed by the definitions for nucleotide and/or amino acid sequences set forth in 37 CFR 1.821(a)(1) and (a)(2). However, this application fails to comply with the requirements of 37 CFR 1.821 through 1.825 because sequences are set forth in the specification (for examples see pages 16, 17) that lack sequence identifiers. If the sequences are already present in the sequence listing, it would be remedial to amend the specification to include the appropriate sequence identifiers. Applicants are required to comply with all of the requirements of 37 CFR 1.821 - 1.825. Any response to this office action that fails to meet all of these requirements will be considered non-responsive. The nature of the noncompliance with the requirements of 37 C.F. R. 1.821 through 1.825 did not preclude the examination of the application on the merits, the results of which are communicated below.

Claim Objections

Claims 2, 3, 4, 9, 10, 11, 12 are objected to because of the following informalities: In claim 2, "alpha mating factors" presumably should read "alpha mating factor". In claim 3, "secretin" presumably should be "secretion", and "to" should be inserted before "said promoter" in the last line of the claim. In claim 4, "a" should be inserted before "target sequence" in line 2 of the claim. In claim 9, "the" should be inserted before "AOX1 sequence". In claim 10, "to" should e inserted after "linked" in line 6 of the claim. In claim 11, "the" should be inserted before "expression vector". The claims should be carefully reviewed to be corrected for any further grammatical errors. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 1, and by dependence claims 2-9, are vague and indefinite in the recitation of "a promoter obtained from a methanol responsive gene of Pichia pastoris at a pH of about 5 to 6.8". It is not clear from the claim whether applicants intend the pH to refer to the media pH in which the recited yeast strain is grown, or whether the pH refers to the pH at which the recited gene is methanol responsive.

Claim 10 is vague and indefinite in reciting "(ii) introducing expression of the alpha1-antitrypsin coding sequence from the expression vector to produce alpha1-antitrypsin...", since it is not clear how "expression" is introduced. (It may be that applicants intended the term "inducing").

Application/Control Number: 10/672,177

Art Unit: 1636

Claim 11 recites an expression vector which is "pGPICZ". However, the specification does not contain any description or recitation of pGPICZ, and it is unclear what is intended by this term. The specification does however recite "pPICZ", which may be what the applicants intended.

Claim 12 recites "selected from the group consisting of KM71, and SMD1168H said strains comprising a...". It is unclear what is intended by this phrase. The claim is further vague and indefinite in the recitation of "a sequence of nucleotides encoding alpha1-antitrypsin and a promoter region from Pichia pastoris AOX1 gene operably linked to the sequence of nucleotides that encodes glycosylated alpha1-antitrypsin", since it is not clear that the sequence encoding alpha1-antitrypsin is intended to be the same as the sequence encoding glycosylated alpha1-antitrypsin. Claim 12 is further vague and indefinite in the recitation of "comprising the steps of ..." since it appears that only one step, i.e. culturing, is recited. Therefore the intended metes and bounds cannot be determined.

Conclusion

No claims are allowed.
